Magic, Creation and Manifestation

Chaos or Cosmos?

Beloveds,

There is Order in Chaos. To think otherwise is to believe in the downward spiral of all souls in the Universe. Out of the darkness, from the void of form and from behind the veil of No-Time, there is an outcome and an answer to your dilemmas. Your world and expanding process of evolution lie in your own hands. Yes! Amazing as that may sound to your ears, you too can find that your Inner Magician awaits your instructions.

Whatever lies in your heart seeks an outward expression. It is your Truth that you will walk out in your dreams and in your life. As surely as the planets circumscribe the central star of your solar system, your world is an expression of all that you and humanity have espoused up till this point. To change your world for the Highest Good of All requires that you change your mind, thoughts and action with Love. You can restore Joy, Peace and Harmony with the Intention of your heart, the motivation of your Soul and the mass of human consensus.

Order lies in the space between the spaces just as an oak tree lies within its seed. Plant and nurture your intentions and watch them sprout. They will take shape with Time, Purpose and Love. The re-balancing of your world lies within you. Do not doubt your ability to call it forth. We, the Ascended Masters, watch and wait and are ready to assist your leap to become the Magicians and Order-Restorers you have always been. What may seem like a juggling act, is quite simply a clear and straightforward choice to be and embody all that lies within your heart. Allow your creations to fall into place with Divine timing, without force. The order of things works in Harmony. Trust it.

Master of Earth Magic, Merlin

Imagination is Creation

Fellow Wizards,

There is so much to enjoy in life, so much to do and so many things to choose from. At no other time in Earth's history has it been so expedient for you to step into your Truth and do what you do best. The fulfillment of your individual dreams contributes to the whole. Never give up on your dreams – come what may! There is so much waiting for you around the corner. You may not be able to see what lies ahead, but your inner vision and senses will guide you. Use your imagination, for "Imagination is Creation".

Therefore, imagine the very best for yourself. Dream big! Create it in your inner experience so that it may be mirrored back to you. Imagine yourself there, in the end picture, already having achieved your dream. You will experience this through your inner messengers, your senses, which are: visual, auditory, kinesthetic, olfactory and gustatory. Allow any one or a combination of these systems to help you get a real sense of this dream being real.

Your dreams arise from your subconscious, providing the information that you store deep within. Sleeping permits your subconscious (or unconscious mind) to do its work unimpeded. Your dreams can reveal much to help you on your way to fulfill your destiny, for your dreams are all about you!

Love and Happiness

Beloved Friends,

It is your God-given right to pursue love and happiness throughout your days on Earth. When you immerse yourself in Nature, in beauty and all that Gaia has to offer you, your life will be greatly enriched. It was designed to be that way. To see life's challenges as doom and gloom, to allow a downward spiral of lack and negativity to rule your existence is a sure-fire way to miss the proverbial "love boat". The gifts of the Creator have not changed.

Despite imperfections of the human self, communion with your God Self will pave the way to a greater sense of wellbeing and acceptance of yourself. Learning to Balance and remain centered no matter what is happening round about you, is an art and, over time, a great accomplishment. The love that you seek from communication and intimacy with others is a great part of human happiness. However, what you seek outside of yourself must be found within. You need not pursue the life of a hermit, yet a goodly amount of time spent in contemplation and meditation will enable a deeper understanding. It may not arrive in one swoop but will gently infuse you over time with a sense of Peace, self-knowing and acceptance. This becomes your Truth.

The relationships that are in your life are a sign of where you are with yourself. Perhaps you are seeking a special relationship that you believe will present you the love you seek. We are all a part of the Great Oneness of the Creator and no-one or nothing is separate from that. Grasping is counter effective when seeking a love relationship. Acceptance of and surrender to your Higher Self first is the key to experiencing the Divine Love of an Ultimate Partner, wherever and whenever that may occur. Your Beloved on Earth deserves all the love that you can be and give. Your heart will guide you in all that you do if you will allow. You cannot change others, but you can allow the Divine Love that is you to show you how to be. Live Love in every way, every day. This is your destiny, your gift to the world and the way to find your ultimate love and happiness.

*With a Great Love for You,
Ascended Master Aengus of Twin Flame Love*

A New World Begins

Dear Beloveds,

I greet you with Love and Compassion as you each weather the changed conditions of living as a result of the Corona Virus pandemic. While many individuals have chosen to leave the planet at this time, those of you who are choosing to serve humanity and mass consciousness with a renewed perspective of Love, are charged to hold fast to the new ideas and creativity that you are birthing. Many of you are finding yourselves faced with altered circumstances and may be grieving the loss of loved ones. The heavenly company of the Ascended Masters, Archangels, Angels and Enlightened Beings wish to let you know that every soul is fulfilling his or her contract at this time.

Those of you who remain are charged with the evolution of Love, Unity and Peace on Planet Earth. At no time before has the Collective been ready to embrace Christ Consciousness and the true Freedom for which you have worked over millennia and multiple lifetimes. The new reality in which you find yourselves will not return to the old paradigm of "me, me, me" but instead will evolve to "We Consciousness" that will encompass Love, Peace, Health, Harmony and Abundance for All. True Freedom can never be won with weapons of destruction and fearmongering, but with the Love, Light and Compassion that you are
